PLEASE READ THOROUGHLY PRIOR TO SET UP:

Carefully follow guidelines and instruction manual to ensure proper use.

PROPER USE:

It is your responsibility to take the following precautions at all times:

- Always secure your canopy by staking each leg into the ground with stakes provided with your canopy and with YOLI Deluxe Canopy Anchor Bags.
- Do not use your canopy with Anchor Bags in high winds or thunderstorms. Inclement weather can damage your canopy especially when Anchor Bags are attached.
- Anchor Bags will help anchor the canopy but we highly recommend not leaving your canopy up for extended periods of time or unattended.
- Do not set up the canopy using the Anchor Bags on steep grades or on uneven surfaces.
- Do not overfill the bags with sand, dirt or gravel.

LIMITED 1 YEAR WARRANTY

East Resource Outdoor Inc., hereby known as ERO, the manufacturer, subject to the following limitations and pertinent laws warrants the YOLI Deluxe Canopy Anchor Bags aka as Weight Bags are free of defects in workmanship or materials for a period of 1 year after the date of purchase. The warranty applies only to the original purchaser who provides a dated receipt from an Authorized Dealer only. YOLI Deluxe Canopy Anchor Bags ownership are non-transferrable. The warranty is applicable only for expected and normal uses as defined by the manufacturer.

ERO responsibility under warranty or any other legal obligation regarding this product is limited to the repair or replacement of defective part(s) (at our discretion) by ERO or its Authorized Representative. Warranty does not cover consequential damages defined as damage occurring to your property or someone else's property in the event this product does not work properly or was improperly used. ERO or its Authorized Representatives will not be liable for any personal injury, loss or indirect or direct damage resulting in the use of the YOLI Deluxe Canopy Anchor Bags.

Prior to returning any YOLI Anchor Bags to ERO or its Authorized Representative for warranty inspection, the purchaser must obtain a return authorization number by emailing or calling our toll-free number. Purchaser is responsible for all shipping costs by pre-paying the return. ERO nor its Authorized Representative does not assume responsibility if the return is damaged during transport. In some instances, in lieu of sending the Weight Bags back for inspection, we will request pictures to assess any issues you may have.

Warranty Conditions: Warranty does not cover damage caused by normal wear, excessive wear or use, misuse, abuse, accidents, tears caused by owner's neglect, including failure to inspect prior to use. Product warranty is voided when product has been modified, altered in anyway and if proper care was not taken when in use or product instructions were not properly followed such as incorrect installation or improperly taking off the Anchor Bags.

This warranty is provided in lieu of any other warranties, expressed or implied.
